IN THE WORLD OF SOCIETY

GOV. AND MRS. MANN WILL GIVE A SILVER WEDDING.

Home-Comings and Departures.

Weddings—Personal Notes.

The Governor of Virginia and Mrs. William Hodges Mann have issued cards for a reception to be given in celebration of the twenty-fifth anniversary of their marriage, Friday evening, October 28, from 8 to 11 p.m. at the executive mansion, Richmond. The cards are signed in Mrs. Mann's maiden name, Etta Edloe Mann, and by Gov. William Hodges Mann.

Mrs. Meyer and the Misses Meyer, who sailed last week, will be away six weeks or more and will spend that interval in Spain, southern Italy and France.

The German ambassador and Countess von Bernstorff and daughter, Princess Cantacuzene, who was Miss Julia Grant, and Justice and Mrs. Holmes are passengers aboard the Kaiser Wilhelm, expected to arrive tomorrow at Hoboken.

Mrs. William Alden Smith and his sister, Mrs. Jewell of Grand Rapids, were in Detroit last week, and the honor guests at a large theater party.

Miss Parrish of this city will be a bridesmaid at the approaching marriage of Miss Gwendolin Marion Story, daughter of Mr. Waldo Story, and Capt. Stewart, naval attaché of the British embassy in Rome, Vienna and Athens. The ceremony will be in January.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank B. Noyes have re-opened their residence, 1220 Vermont avenue. Miss Frances Noyes, who has been visiting Mrs. James M. Johnston at Casanova, N. Y., has also returned to Washington.

Miss Eleanor Terry and her fiancé, Lieut. Camperio of the Italian navy, have returned from West Chester, Pa., where they were members of a large house party entertained by Miss Terry's cousin, Mrs. Henry Norris of Philadelphia.

Mayor and Mrs. Reuben have returned to Philadelphia after their week-end visit here to attend the White House dinner Saturday night. Mrs. Reuben expects to be here for at least a part of the winter.

Mrs. Julian James and members of the board of the House of Mercy will preside at an apron sale to be held at 1619 New Hampshire avenue Wednesday next from 3 to 6 o'clock. All articles to be sold have been made by the work of the board.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Roth have issued invitations for the marriage of their daughter, Miss Minnie and Mr. Leon L. Litz Wednesday evening, October 28, at 7:30 o'clock, at Centennial Baptist Church, 61st street, Capitol Heights, Md. A reception will be held in the town hall at 8 o'clock.

Maj. Gen. G. F. Elliott, commandant of the Marine Corps, with Mrs. Elliott, has moved from the commandant's house, marine barracks, this city, and taken an apartment at the Tuxedo, 20th and streets. This move is made in order that the building which has been occupied by Gen. Elliott since he became commandant and which has been occupied by all commandants of the Marine Corps since its erection in 1893, may be repaired.

black velvet robe, topped by black velvet coat, with touches of white lace. She wore a high black velvet hat of the so-called basket-shape, faced with white and having a spray of gold buds at one side.

As she, with the bridegroom, appeared at the top of the stairs leading down to the entrance hall they were greeted with the Harvard college call and showers of rice, flung up instead of down. The bride tossed her bouquet to her attendants assembled at the bottom of the stairs, and it was caught by Miss Jessie Thompson.

Mr. and Mrs. Cutler then entered the fish family carriage, the horses and coachman's whip being decorated with knots of white ribbon, and drove off. After a brief trip Mr. and Mrs. Cutler will live in Boston, where the bridegroom's parents have given them a house.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Scott Smith have issued invitations for the marriage of their daughter, Miss Annette Smith, and William Klipp of New York. The wedding will take place at 8 o'clock Saturday evening, November 12, at All Souls' Church.

Miss Westmore is to return soon from Europe, and will remain in Newport for some time with Miss Keteltas. About the middle of December she will go to New York for the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Westinghouse will keep their country place open well into the early winter.

At a meeting of the junior class of Smith College, October 22, Miss Frances Carpenter of Washington was elected, as gymnasium and field association representative, as well as to the captain of the cricket team. Miss Carpenter is a member of the college press board and is well known and popular.

Mr. and Mrs. Larz Anderson are passengers on the Kaiserin Augusta Victoria, which is due the last of the week in New York. They will go at once to their Brookline estate, to remain probably until after Christmas, before opening their Washington home.

The French railway strike played havoc in a social way in Berlin with Mrs. Anderson and Mrs. Clarence Edwards while they were with Secretary and Mrs. McKim on a party. The ladies had expected to proceed to Paris direct from Berlin, and checked their luggage through from Berlin.

In the meantime, the French strike came on, with the result that their trunks, containing all their evening clothes, were piled up somewhere along the French frontier with a mountain of other luggage held up by the stoppage of communication.

Big Tank Steamer Oklahoma Reported to Be All Right.
NEWPORT, R. I., October 21.—Developments today proved that last night's wireless message of distress, purporting to come from the big tank steamer Oklahoma, was a hoax. The revenue cutter Acushnet, which had picked up the mysterious "S. G. Oklahoma," was in communication early today with that steamer well down on the southern coast on her way to Port Arthur, Texas, and she reported everything all right.
